

REQUIEM FOR NEW ZEALAND - Lyrics

WOMAN VOICE

Why does your eyes have so much rage?
Why do you crave to explode with hate?
Where all the madness comes from in your heart beat
Gliding through the darkness in your sleep

Waking up to express your affliction
Killing fields is your day's resurrection
Spraying guns for blood and destruction

And leave a trail in vain celebration
And smile!

Why does your eyes have so much rage?
Why do you crave to explode with hate?
Where all the madness comes from in your heart beat
Gliding through the darkness in your sleep

Sorrow is painful
Earth cries!
And carry the souls in silent heartache
Washing all the tears you're giving
Fall!
Souls have departed
You're so vain
And smile!

MAN VOICE

Plunged into darkness of the day
Hate has no place
We live as one

We are the children of this world

Our hearts are raging
Our minds are searching
Where all the hatred comes from Christchurch is mourning Plunged into darkness of the day

And carry the souls in silent heartache
Washing all the tears you're giving
Fall!

Your hate and violence scorched the world

Requiem for New Zealand – Composition & Lyrics by Mustafa Khetty

Assisted By

Programing & Arrangement: Cem Ergunoglu

Mixing: Emircan Unsev

Orchestration: Özgür Ulusoy

Strings: Anadolu Quartet

Bflat Clarinet: Zeynep Gök

Contrabass:

Solo Artists:

Zilan KÜÇÜKBALABAN – Lead Soprano

Ulaş SAKA – Lead Baritone

Choir:

Soprano

Nurgülay Yıldırım

Aslıhan Sağlam

Mezzo-Soprano

Zilan Küçükbalaban

Merve Tokat

Tenor

Uğur Etiler

Buğra Uğur

Baritone-Bass

Erdem Sakarya

Ulaş Saka

Zilan KÜÇÜKBALABAN – Lead Soprano

Ulaş SAKA – Lead Baritone

Production and Recording at Morpheus Musica, Istanbul, Turkey.